

Bonnie
NICHOLS

Bonnie
NICHOLS

I've Got Something to Say

© © 2006 Open Session Records. All rights reserved.
Unauthorized duplication is a violation of applicable laws.
www.BonnieNichols.com

Bonnie
NICHOLS

I've Got Something to Say is a collection of songs; each of which contains a powerful message. While we've all struggled with our involvement in the war, Bonnie wrote a love song to our troops titled, "Red, White and Blue." Months after the 2004 tsunami disaster in Asia she tried to explore the meaning of "Grace" in everyday life. Watching her son raise his children inspired her to write "Family Matters." In "Turn the Quiet Up," Bonnie writes from her heart about the need to slow down and reconnect with those we love. When she lost her husband to a sudden heart attack, she wrote "New Beginning" to honor him and to describe the experience with organ and tissue donation. As a young woman, Bonnie didn't know how she would survive without her father's guidance after he died. Then the chorus for "Borrowed Wings" came to her and verses flowed spontaneously from her friend and co-writer Jaye Bartlett.

Bonnie is published on two Grammy finalist children's albums with J. Aaron Brown & Associates of Nashville, TN. She has also earned a Wolf Trap Silver Medallion Award.

I've Got Something to Say

Produced by: Jim Kimball and Bonnie Nichols
Recorded and Mixed by: Jim Kimball at the Hot Closet, Nashville, TN
Tracking Sessions Engineered by: Todd Tidwell
Mastered by: Custom Mastering, Nashville, TN

Jim Kimball - Acoustic Guitars and Harmonica
Danny Parks - Electric Guitars
Don Kerce - Bass
Dennis Holt - Drums and Percussion
Chris Rhyne - Keyboards
Bruce Bouton - Pedal Steel and Dobro
Tammy Rogers - Mandolin and Fiddle
Scott Kinney - Trumpet

Bonnie Nichols - Lead and Background Vocals
Scat Springs, Britt Savage, Kim Parent and Tim Buppert - Background Vocals
Buck - Studio Ears and Aromatherapy

All songs written by Bonnie Nichols except "Borrowed Wings" written by Bonnie Nichols and Jaye Bartlett. "Lullaby in Three-Quarter Time" and "Straight To My Heart" written by Bonnie Nichols and Debi Honer.

Song list for I've Got Something to Say:

1. Red, White and Blue
2. Superhuman Kind of Love
3. Turn the Quiet Up
4. They Took My Lord Away
5. Grace
6. Borrowed Wings
7. Family Matters
8. Straight to My Heart
9. Lullaby in Three-Quarter Time
10. New Beginning